

DEBBIE O'BRIEN CASTING BREAKDOWN

The Rock and Roll Pantos 2018-19 CINDERELLA New Wolsey Theatre, Ipswich

Director : Peter Rowe
MD : Ben Goddard
Rehearse in Ipswich : Monday 5th November 2018
First performance – Thursday 29th November 2018
Last Performance – Saturday 2nd February 2019

Seasonal entertainment with all the trimmings – jokes, slapstick and lashings of audience participation – with the added delight of all the music played live by multi-talented casts of 10 people – these rock pantos combine the best of traditional pantomime with classic rock, soul and pop hits.

Due to someone pulling out and breaking their contract, we are still re-auditioning for one role in this Christmas show. We are now looking at a different combination of instruments.

The Royal Messenger – excellent musician with good sense of physical comedy and strong rock/pop voice. He needs to play piano to an excellent professional level. If he also plays trumpet, that would be excellent. Other instruments are a bonus. It is not a big acting role!

We welcome applications from artistes of all ethnicities/heritages for all roles, and we are very keen to receive applications from actor musicians who are deaf or have other disabilities, as we are committed to employing and promoting these artistes who are under –represented in performance companies.

Auditions : date TBC

Fees :
£545.00 per week rehearsal and playing
Company wage
Subs : £167 per week if applicable.